Mrs. Chanpen Priyaboram was born in Rajburi Province in central Thailand in 1941. She received education up to high-school level and worked for a short while as a teacher. She is married with 4 grown children. She and her husband ran a furniture business and now manage a small store selling antiques.

In her childhood, she followed her mother to the temple and thus was rooted in Buddhist practice.

She came to the temple as volunteer since Ven. Voramai Kabilingh's time and she has been offering her assistance for more than 40 years.

After Ven. Grandma (Voramai kabilsingh) passed away, Mrs. Priyaboram still remains an active member of the monastery.

She also cooks for the sangha in her free time, she takes care of the weekly offering and in the evenings, she is often seen rowing the boat and sifting out dried leaves from the pond in the back garden of the temple.
